

Output Application

Settlements identified as economically vulnerable are given priority when designing and implementing sanitation interventions across the sanitation value chain. These settlements can also be overlaid with other environmental and climate risk outputs to identify those with a higher degree of vulnerability.

Revision #2

Created 21 May 2024 09:25:29

Updated 28 January 2025 06:17:37